The Raising Of A Royal Priesthood

Part One: Moses on Mount Sinai – The Bridal Covenant

Exodus chapter eighteen is entirely devoted to Jethro/Yitro, Moses' father–in–law. It was Jethro who kept Moses’ family safe while Moses led the Israelites out of Egypt. Scripture emphasizes the fact that Jethro was Moses' father-in-law twelve times in this chapter. God/Elohim used repetition to direct us to the fact that Jethro was one who walked in Covenant with Him. How was Jethro, a former Midianite priest, given the understanding and insight unless he had studied in the tents of Jacob?

Jethro joins the Israelites at Rephidim, about a day’s journey from Mount Sinai. Here we see the immense mutual respect between the two men as they embraced and shared fellowship together. Moses retold God’s/Elohim miraculous deliverance, the parting of the Red Sea, and the demise of Pharaoh’s mighty army, as the sea returned to its natural state. Jethro was greatly comforted in this news, which further strengthened his faith. “Now I know that the LORD/Yahweh is greater than all the other gods.” Then “Jethro brought the burnt offering and other sacrifices before the LORD/Yahweh.” After worship, Aaron and the elders of Israel broke bread with Jethro in the presence of God/Elohim, confirming that indeed he had come into a Covenant relationship with God/Elohim (Exodus 18:11).

A Father-In-Law’s Advice
Exodus 18:13-27

Jethro and Moses may have celebrated the Sabbath together as this next section in Scripture opened with Moses returning to work.
Exodus 18:13 “The next day Moses took his seat to serve as judge for the people.”

When Jethro observed Moses serving the people, he asked, “Why do you alone sit as judge?” Moses answered, “Because the people come to me to seek God’s/Elohim will.” Jethro pointed out that Moses was making the people dependent on him, which prevented them from seeking God/Elohim. He suggested Moses be weaned from the people in that regard, or he would weaken physically. In delegating his responsibilities to the tribal leaders, the people would become more accountable for their actions; thus, Israel would grow strong.

Jethro proved to be an invaluable help to Moses, explaining how to administer and adjudicate God’s/Elohim principles among the people. Under Jethro’s tutoring, Moses developed competent and efficient leadership. That action freed Moses to oversee the camp but at the same time, be available for the more difficult cases if they occurred. Jethro’s arrangements lighten the load for Moses, and the people developed better responsibility, thereby encouraging the whole community (Exodus 18:21).

Jethro inspired Moses by saying, “If you do this and God/Elohim so confirms this, you will be able to stand the strain.” Once the camp was in order, Jethro returned to his country (Exodus 18:20-21; Ezekiel 44: 23-24; Acts 6:1-7; 1 Timothy 3:1-14).

Jeremiah 31:34 “No more shall every man teach his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, ‘Know the LORD/Yahweh, for they all shall know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them,’ says the LORD/Yahweh. ‘For I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin I will remember no more.’”

Hebrews 8:11 “No longer will a man teach his neighbor, or a man his brother, saying, ‘Know the Lord,’ because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest.”

Mount Sinai
Exodus 19

Exodus 19:1 “In the third month after the children of Israel had gone out of the land of Egypt, on the same day, they came to the Wilderness of Sinai.”

The Israelites left Egypt on the fifteenth day of the first month, on the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. Exactly two months later, the Israelites arrived at Mount Sinai on the same day, the fifteenth day, but in the third month - for the Feast of Shavuot/Pentecost. Their arrival at Mount Sinai was in fulfillment of the promise given Moses earlier while at the burning bush (Exodus 3:1-2; Revelation 13:8).

Exodus 3:12; 12:17 “Certainly I will be with you, and this shall be the sign to you that it is I who have sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God/Elohim at this mountain.”
Exodus 5:1 “Afterward Moses and Aaron went in and told Pharaoh, ‘Thus says the LORD/Yahweh God/Elohim of Israel: ‘Let My people go, that they may hold a feast to Me [Shavuot] in the wilderness.’”

Once Israel arrived, God/Elohim called Moses to meet with Him on the mountain.

Exodus 19:4-6 “You yourselves have seen what I did to Egypt, and how I carried you on eagles’ wings and brought you to Myself. Now IF you obey me fully and keep my covenant, then out of all nations you will be my treasured possession. Although the whole earth is mine, you will be for me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation. These are the words you are to speak to the Israelites.”

You Are To Speak These Words To The Israelites
Exodus 19:4-6 and Acts 2

In Acts 2, after Yeshua’s days on earth, Peter, in obedience to Exodus 19:4-6, addressed the twelve tribes of Israel (Jacob) by quoting the very words God/Elohim gave Moses on Mount Sinai. He shared the same words on the same day - Shavuot/Pentecost. It came about when a remnant of the twelve tribes of Israel gathered to celebrate the High Holy Feast Day of Shavuot in Jerusalem. About a hundred and twenty had gathered in the upper room of the temple for morning prayers. However, the majority of people were still outside. After the mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit/Ruach HaKodesh in the upper room, Peter went out. Standing in the outer court, he noticed these same people still mulling around. Seeing they had no guidance, he addressed them by quoting Exodus 19:4-6:

“You are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God/Elohim, that you may declare the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His wonderful light”(Exodus 19:4-6; 1 Peter 2:9).

Those whom Peter addressed were from many different nations, all descendants of the Israelites who stood with Moses at Mount Sinai. In his sharing, Peter revealed their identity and that because of their forefathers’ disobedience to the Message given to them at Mount Sinai through Moses, they had become a scattered people among the Nations.

Micah 5:7-8 “Then the remnant of Jacob [Israel] shall be in the midst of many peoples, like dew from the LORD/Yahweh, like showers on the grass, that tarry for no man nor wait for the sons of men. And the remnant of Jacob [Israel] shall be among the Gentiles [Nations], in the midst of many peoples,”

When the people heard Peter share of Yeshua through the prophets and how Yeshua, through His shed blood, restored the original Betrothal Covenant given at Mount Sinai, these Israelites were gripped in their hearts and repented for not obeying God’s/Elohim instructions imparted by Moses. With humbled hearts, they too received an upper room experience with tongues of anointing falling upon them also. That Shavuot Day three thousand plus were anointed, the same number that had fallen at the golden calf incident at Mount Sinai generations earlier.
Only those in the Abrahamic Covenant observe Pentecost/Shavuot, and of those, only a few are actually in the right place to receive the anointing. It is the same for believers today. Many do not know what Shavuot is all about, as they have not learned of it through Moses. In Revelation 3:14, God/Elohim chastened the church of Laodicea for being lukewarm. Yeshua said to believers He is standing at the door knocking. The door He knocks at is Shavuot – The entrance to the Tabernacle.

Shavuot, along with all God’s/Elohim Feast Days, is a perpetual Feast. That is why we see throughout the Bible His people honoring His Feasts in each generation – even after Yeshua’s death and resurrection. These historical Feasts reveal they are not only eternal Covenantal Feasts but also prophetic and time responsive. When God/Elohim calls His people to meet with Him on His appointed Feast, it is a Sabbath. Yeshua is Lord of the Sabbath. All Sabbaths are Heavenly court engagements. How do we know this? When we read further on in Scripture, we will see that Moses was given the pattern of the heavenly Tabernacle that he was to build exactly as seen on the mountain. God’s/Elohim Feast Days (Sabbaths) are seasons of worship before Him. They uphold and speak of His Kingdom. If they are not part of the Tabernacle, then the need for an earthly Tabernacle/Temple is superfluous. That is why, when we obey God’s/Elohim instructions, we follow the pattern, as it is built on a heavenly kingdom dimension, not an earthly one (Matthew 12:8; Mark 2:28; Luke 6:5).

To walk in God’s/Elohim Feast Days carries an anointing full of blessings. When we obey, we will experience dramatic signs and wonders like Moses and the prophets and the disciples. Prophetic events yet to occur on earth are revealed in God’s/Elohim appointed times. What happened with Moses at Passover and Peter at Pentecost/Shavuot in their day will be recurring events in the future. The bigger event, the Wedding, is concealed until its appointed time (Sabbath) during the Fall Feasts. Our part of the unfolding of God’s/Elohim plan is to observe all of His Feast Days in their appointed times, like rehearsals, as they are part of our Marriage Covenant.

Exodus 19:7-8 “So Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before them all these words which the LORD/Yahweh commanded him. Then all the people answered together and said, ‘All that the LORD/Yahweh has spoken we will do [we will fully obey and keep His Covenant].’”

The vow the people spoke in Exodus 19:4-8 was clearly a betrothal response in a Covenant setting between the people and their Maker. As believers, we were given the same legal marriage Covenant (called in Hebrew a ketubah). The ketubah is an eternal Covenant, not a contract.
Either party can break a contract at any time, but our Maker sets our Covenant in eternity. His Covenant is legal and binding - an unbreakable promise to His Bride.

You Are A Royal Priesthood And A Holy Nation

The Counting Of The Omer

By the time the Israelites left Egypt, the consecration of the royal priesthood had begun. The seven-day period after the Feast of Passover, called Unleavened Bread, was a set-apart consecration time for the people. They had left Egypt, an unclean place (the realm of death), and separated themselves that they might worship God/Elohim and return to the Promised Land of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob – the land of their heritage (Leviticus 23; 1 Peter 2:9).

The Israelites came through the physical deliverance from Egypt. In crossing the Red Sea, they left the realm of death. Thus, they experienced a status change. Likened to being born again, they were all filled, all who left Egypt with Moses, over 600,000, were all filled within with the Holy Spirit/Ruach HaKodesh.

Isaiah 63:11-13 “Then he remembered the days of old, Moses and his people, saying: ‘Where is He who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of His flock? Where is He who put His Holy Spirit within them, Who led them by the right hand of Moses, With His glorious arm, Dividing the water before them to make for Himself an everlasting name, Who led them through the deep, as a horse in the wilderness, that they might not stumble?’”

However, they would need cleansing from the lingering effects of the Egyptian confinement to learn how to walk in their redemption again. Without this cleansing, they would die (1 Peter 2:8). To restore their hearts and minds, the Israelites entered a purifying stage called the Counting of the Omer. The circumcision of the heart for the redemption of the soul would deliver them from matters that could cause spiritual blindness (mentally and emotionally). Four hundred years was a long time away from home (outside the land of Israel). Impurities and iniquities inherited from their forefathers, along with the traumatic abuse they endured, as slaves in Egypt, would bring contamination; thus, the cleansing process was imperative (1 Peter 1:9-12).

The Counting of the Omer begins after the seven-day Feast of Unleavened Bread and lasts seven Sabbaths/weeks or fifty days. This Counting is also an eternal count that God/Elohim calls His people to celebrate today. The Counting has a prophetic significance for the preparation of the nation of Israel in that it focuses explicitly on how His people are to walk in Righteousness as a royal priesthood and also a holy set apart nation before Him (Exodus 19:5-6; 1 Peter 2:9).

The Passover is a one-day memorial - the call that sets Yeshua’s Bride apart from all others (the representation of the firstborn/priesthood in Yeshua). The Feast of Unleavened Bread is a seven-day consecration time for the royal priesthood, and the Counting of the Omer is a seven Sabbath week consecration time for the holy nation of Israel. Together, God/Elohim has designed His Feast Days to deliver His intended Bride to her betrothal with Him at Mount Sinai, where He stands at the door of her heart and knocks. This door is called The Feast of Shavuot/Pentecost. It is here He will hand her a legal document (Covenant) called the Torah - containing His intentions. Here she will accept His intentions or not (Other names for the Torah: the Good News, the Gospel, The Song of Moses, the Song of the Lamb, the Law) (Leviticus 23; Exodus 19:5-6; Matthew 25:1-13; 1 Peter 2:9).

During the Feast of the Counting, an unleavened bread-like substance, called manna, fell like dew each morning. The Israelites were to gather an omer of manna each day. Only on the sixth day were they to gather a double portion (about two quarts). They did this for fifty days or seven Sabbaths/weeks before reaching the mountain. That is why this time is called the Counting of the Omer or weeks. The gathering helped the Israelites examine their hearts, so by the time they reached the Holy Mountain, they would be prepared to meet with God/Elohim in body, soul, spirit, and mind as one/echad in Him.

Today, this Count is still celebrated. However, there seems to be no mention of a specific date as to when Shavuot is celebrated in Scripture as we see with the rest of God’s/Elohim Feast Days. Scripture does point out that the Count begins after the Sabbath and ends after the seventh Sabbath, but confusion arises as to which Sabbath the count begins, as there are three possible starting dates.

Leviticus 23:15-16 “And you shall count for yourselves from the day after the Sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering: seven Sabbaths shall be completed. Count fifty days to the day after the seventh Sabbath; then you shall offer a new grain offering to the LORD/Yahweh.”

For generations, there has been a friendly discussion between groups as to when to celebrate Shavuot. Some base their calculations to begin the Counting of the Omer right after the weekly Sabbath closest to the Passover. Others base their Count on the first day (a Sabbath) of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and still, others base their count on the last day (a Sabbath) of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. The Rabbis seem to use an extraordinarily extensive mathematical and logical explanation for their calculations, which the layperson finds daunting to understand. Thus, we see these different dates for Shavuot emerge. Then there is the Church, who celebrates the Greek form of Shavuot, called Pentecost. They base their date on the timing of the Babylonian Spring solstice – a pagan festival. In any case, all the above calculations have one common ground between them - that Shavuot/Pentecost must be celebrated on a Sunday. Is there a right answer here?

At the beginning of the study, we read in Scripture that the Children of Israel arrived at Mount Sinai on the fifteenth day of the third month – for the Feast of Shavuot/Pentecost (Leviticus 23).

“In the third month after the children of Israel had gone out of the land of Egypt, on the same day, they came to the Wilderness of Sinai” (Exodus 19:1).

Exodus 19:1 clearly reveals that the timing of the Feast of Shavuot in the Bible was when the Israelites arrived at Mount Sinai – on the same day they left, in the third month. That would make it the fifteenth day of the third Hebrew lunar month or the day after the seventh Sabbath (the fiftieth day). What that day and date are on a Gregorian solar calendar each year is anybody’s guess. The purpose of Sheepfold Gleanings is to help point out facts in Scripture and to help the reader discern truth. Selah.
God/Elohim chose the Children of Israel, all twelve tribes, to enter into a Covenant relationship with Him and to be His Bride. He promised this to Abraham and his descendants after him. The Israelites leaving Egypt were the children of Abraham, who prepared to enter the next phase of their redemption called the betrothal. Today, if you are in Yeshua, you are also called Abraham’s seed.

Galatians 3:7 “Therefore know that only those who are of faith [in Yeshua] are sons of Abraham.”

Galatians 3:29 “And if you are Christ’s/Messiah’s, then you are Abraham’s seed, and heirs [to the Marriage Covenant given at Mount Sinai through Moses] according to the promise [Abrahamic Covenant].”

The Three Stages Of A Biblical Marriage

The three phases of a Biblical marriage are The Betrothal, The Marriage, and The Wedding Reception. God’s/Elohim Feast Days or moedim follow this pattern. Believers enter into His Feasts each year as a rehearsal for Yeshua’s return and that she might prepare for her wedding day.

- Passover is the calling out of the Bride to separate herself and be filled with the Ruach.
- Unleavened Bread and the Counting of the Omer are her purity preparations.
- Shavuot/Pentecost is the betrothal of the Bride and the giving of the Marriage Covenant.
- Yom Teruah/Feast of Trumpets announces the Bridegroom’s return for His Bride.
- Yom Kippur/Day of Atonement is their Wedding Day.
- Sukkot/Feast of Tabernacles is their wedding reception after the wedding called the Wedding Supper of the Lamb when all the nations (wedding guests) come to celebrate (Zechariah 14:16-21; Revelation 19:7).

All of God’s/Elohim Feasts establish the Bride in her identity as Israel, Yeshua’s firstborn. His Feasts reveal how she is to prepare and walk in the realms of His Heavenly Kingdom. Why is it important to keep His Feasts? They are symbols and signs that guide the Bride like a road map to her wedding day. The Bridegroom’s Feast Days fill His Bride with extra anointing oil to light, bless, and sanctify her way (Matthew 25:1-13). The fifty-day counting of the Omer will bring the Bride to Shavuot, and the receiving of the Marriage Covenant. At this point, the Bride is betrothed, in as much as she is legally married, but does not live with her husband, not until her wedding day will she tabernacle with Him. By keeping His Divine appointments, the Bride will be well on her way in her preparations for her marriage (Song of Solomon; Matthew 25:1-13; 22:1-14; Luke 14:15-24).

The Receiving Of The Betrothal – The Ten Commandments

The Consecration - Holiness

Exodus 19:10-11

For the betrothal/Shavuot preparations at Mount Sinai, God/Elohim stipulated that the Israelites were to undertake a three-day consecration time. As for a wedding, it is a dedicated time where the Bride makes herself ready. During this period, she changed from everyday attire and washed before arraying herself in clean, prepared, holy wedding garments. This washing was for the sole purpose of a status change (from one realm/unclean to another/clean) called the mikvah. On the third day, all the Israelites were prepared, and a trumpet sounded louder and louder. A cloud covering became the chuppah under which God/Elohim met with His Bride. A display of lightning and thunder followed, along with the sounding of a long, loud ram’s horn. Then, God/Elohim spoke His Ten Famous Words over His Bride. Today they are known as the Ten Commandments. In Hebrew, Aseret HaDibrot, which translated, means Ten Statements or Categories. The Ten Commandments are God’s/Elohim wedding vow to His Bride (Exodus 20:1-17).

Acts 2:1-4 “When the Day of Pentecost [Shavuot] had fully come, they were all with one accord [echad] in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. Then there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire, and one sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.”

As in every wedding, there is an exchange of vows. The Ten spoken words/statements at Mount Sinai became the legal, moral, and ethical affirming eternal testimony outlining His promises to His Bride. There was nothing more honoring the Bridegroom could have given His Bride. Here the Bridegroom declared His intention in prophetic language to bless her (I will cause her to have no other gods before Me. I will cause her to remember the Sabbath and keep it holy, etc.). Following the exchange of vows, the Ten Statements were then fully expounded upon. Each statement contained particular principles, and each upheld the moral and ethical code contained within that specific declaration. In all, there are 613 declared principles. God/Elohim then instructed Moses to write them out for His Bride and store them in a Covenant known as the Mosaic Covenant. The rabbis say that all 613 principles are contained in the ten prophetic statements given at Mount Sinai (Exodus 19 to 24).

I am the LORD/Yahweh your God/Elohim
Thou shall have no other gods before Me
Thou shall not take the name of the LORD/Yahweh your God/Elohim in vain
Remember to keep the Sabbath day, to keep it holy Honor thy father and thy mother
Thou shall not kill
Thou shall not commit adultery
Thou shall not steal
Thou shall not bear false witness against thy neighbor
Thou shall not covet
All of God’s Elohim Feast Days, because they are Sabbaths, sanctify time, and belong in the fourth commandment about observing the Sabbath. Dealing honestly with God/Elohim, family, friends, and business fall under not bearing false testimony. Paying the tithe to God/Elohim falls under thou shall not steal. If a principle does not seem to have an apparent logical reason, it falls under number one, which constitutes an essential belief in God/Elohim and the call to heed His voice whether it makes sense to the Bride or not, as it is a heavenly directive and not an earthy directive.

It was on Shavuot/Pentecost that God/Elohim gave the Ten Statements declaring the truth to the Nations - His Ketubah. Within the Ten Statements contains His entire Gospel. Therefore, as God’s Elohim people, we continue the tradition that has been passed down to us for the last three thousand five hundred years. The call of Pentecost/Shavuot is about the giving of the Gospel to the Nations. It was on Shavuot/Pentecost that God/Elohim gave the Ten Statements declaring the truth to the Nations - His Ketubah. Within the Ten Statements contains His entire Gospel. Therefore, as God’s Elohim people, we continue the tradition that has been passed down to us for the last three thousand five hundred years. The call of Pentecost/Shavuot is about the giving of the Gospel to the Nations. Shavuot/Pentecost is about the sharing of our marriage vows, the Ten Statements of the Gospel, with the Nations.

Matthew 24:14 “And this gospel [Yeshua’s wedding vows] of the kingdom [marriage covenant] will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come.”

Mark 13:10 “And the gospel [Wedding vows – Ten Commandments] must first be preached to all the nations.”

Galatians 3:8 “And the Scripture, foreseeing that God/Elohim would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel to Abraham beforehand, saying, ‘In you all the nations shall be blessed.’”

God/Elohim does not want His Bride to be few or just a remnant but to multiply. He said nations would come into Covenant with Him. That is the Good News of the Gospel and the promise He made to Abraham and declared in writing at Mount Sinai – the promise made to His Bride. Nothing could be dearer or more desirous in His heart. Nothing.

Genesis 17:3-8 “Then Abram fell on his face, and God/Elohim talked with him, saying: As for Me, behold, My covenant is with you, and you shall be a father of many nations. No longer shall your name be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you a father of many nations. I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you. And I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be God/Elohim to you and your descendants after you. Also I give to you and your descendants after you the land in which you are a stranger, all the land of Canaan, as an everlasting possession; and I will be their God/Elohim.”

Genesis 17:19-21 “Then God/Elohim said: ‘No, Sarah your wife shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name Isaac; I will establish My covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his descendants after him. And as for Ishmael, I have heard you. Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly. He shall beget twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation. But My covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear to you at this set time next year.”

Genesis 26:4-5 “And I will make your descendants [Jacob] multiply as the stars of heaven; I will give to your descendants all these lands; and in your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed; because Abraham obeyed My voice and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws.”

What Is The Great Commission?

The Bridegroom declared the Great Commission – His Gospel - in His wedding vows. He didn’t marry just “one” Bride; He married a multitude of nations! Where are the nations today? What Great Commission has His Bride shared? The Ten Statements contain the recipe for revival that is so badly needed today!

Mark 16:14-18 “Later He [Yeshua] appeared to the eleven as they sat at the table; and He rebuked their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen Him after He had risen. And He said to them, ‘Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. He who believes [the wedding vows given him by the Bridegroom] and is baptized will be saved; but he who does not believe will be condemned. And these signs will follow those who believe [in the Gospel/wedding vows from Mount Sinai]: In My name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new tongues; the will take up serpents; and if they drink anything deadly, it will by no means hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover.’”

Moses led the Bride to her Betrothal at Mount Sinai in the Tanakh /Old Testament and is still leading the Bride of Yeshua to her Betrothal in the Brit Chadasha /New Testament today (Acts 2). Same Word (Yeshua), the same message (the Gospel), same Feast (Shavuot), same Bride, and same Bridegroom! One book, one message, one Bride, and one Bridegroom!

The Words spoken at Mount Sinai are the same Words Yeshua shared with the people in Matthew 5. The Beatitudes outline the Wedding Vow/Gospel message. There, He shared the same Ten Statements that Moses gave the Israelites at Mount Sinai, not as a sacrifice but in mercy – to be their Redeemer and Savior. He is the personification of the Word spoken at Mount Sinai. As part of the Messiah, when we embrace all of His Words and implement them in our lives, the fullness of our Bridegroom prepares us for what is yet to come.

Hebrews 4:1-2 “Therefore, since a promise [betrothal] remains of entering His rest [Sabbath/holiness], let us [believers] fear lest any of you seem to have come short of it. For indeed the Gospel [Ten Statements given at Mount Sinai] was preached to us [believers] as well as to them [with Moses and the Israelites at Mount Sinai]; but the word [the wedding vow/Ten Words] which they heard did not profit them, not being mixed with faith/emunah in those who heard it.”

Yeshua summarized His wedding vow/the Ten Statements and the whole Torah in this one sentence:
“And thou shall love the LORD/Yahweh your God/Elohim
With all your heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might”
(Deuteronomy 6:5)

Mark 12:28-31 “Then one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, perceiving that He [Yeshua] had answered them well, asked Him, ‘Which is the first commandment of all?’ Jesus/Yeshua answered him, ‘The first of all the commandments is: “Hear [Shema], O Israel, the LORD/Yahweh our God/Elohim, the LORD/Yahweh is one. And you shall love the LORD/Yahweh your God/Elohim with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.” This is the first commandment. And the second, like it, is this: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” There is no other commandment greater than these’” (Leviticus 19:18;
Zechariah 8:17; Matthew 5:43; 19:19; 22:39; Mark 12:31; Romans 13:9-10; Galatians
5:14; James 2:8).

Hebrews 12:18-27 “For you have not come to the mountain that may be touched and that burned with fire, and to blackness and darkness and tempest, and the sound of a trumpet and the voice of words, so that those who heard it begged that the word should not be spoken to them any more. (For they could not endure what was commanded: ‘And if so much as a beast touches the mountain, it shall be stoned or shot with an arrow.’ And so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, ‘I am exceedingly afraid and trembling.’) But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God/Elohim, the heavenly Jerusalem, to an innumerable company of angels, to the general assembly and church of the firstborn who are registered in heaven, to God/Elohim the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect, to Jesus/Yeshua the Mediator of the new [renewed] covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better things than that of Abel.”

“See that you do not refuse Him who speaks. For if they did not escape who refused Him who spoke on earth, much more shall we not escape if we turn away from Him who speaks from heaven, whose voice then shook the earth; but now He has promised, saying, ‘Yet once more I shake not only the earth, but also heaven. Now this, ‘Yet once more’, indicates the removal of those things that are being shaken, as of things that are made, that the things which cannot be shaken may remain” (Haggai 2:6).

The words once more indicate the removing of what can be shaken - that is, created things - so that what cannot be shaken (that which is built on The Rock/Mount Sinai), may remain.

“Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be thankful, and so worship God/Elohim acceptably with reverence and awe, for our ‘God/Elohim is a consuming fire’” (Hebrews 12:28-29 NIV; Deuteronomy 4:24).
